3. Filer's Employment Agreements and Arrangements

#	EMPLOYER OR PARTY	CITY, STATE	STATUS AND TERMS	DATE
1	General Motors Company	Detroit, Michigan	Filer resigned from the General Motors ("GM") Board in July 2022. Pursuant to a plan, the Filer received a grant of deferred share units (DSU) equal in value to one share of GM common stock, which are fully vested upon grant, but does not have voting rights. Filer received deferred share units ("DSU") for board service in years 2021 and thru Filer's resignation date in July 2022. A cash payment was paid to Filer by GM in February 2023 based on the number of DSUs in the account valued at the average daily closing market price for the quarter immediately preceding the payment. Filer has no residual board compensation from GM as of December 31, 2023.	3/2021
2	Siprocal, Inc. (fka GEEX Sponsor, LLC)	Wilmington , Delaware	Filer resigned from the board of directors of the Games & Esports Experience Acquisition Corp ("Company") in July 2022. Filer vested in and received through MCW Gaming LLC 40,000 Class B shares of the Company, a special purpose acquisition company formed for the purpose of entering into a combination with one or more businesses (the "Combination"). During 2023, the Company shares merged into and became Siprocal, Inc., a mobile videogaming platform in North and South America. Filer is 1% owner in MCW Gaming LLC and still holds the shares at December 31, 2023.	5/2021

#	EMPLOYER OR PARTY	CITY, STATE	STATUS AND TERMS	DATE
3	Lead Edge Growth Opportunities, Ltd	New York, New York	Filer served on the board of directors of Lead Edge Growth Opportunities, Ltd (the "Company") and resigned in July 2022. The Company is a special purchase acquisition company formed for the purpose of entering into a combination with one or more businesses (the "Combination"). The Class A shares of the Company are listed on the NASDAQ. In accordance with an agreement with the Company, Filer acquired unvested Class B shares of the Company. The Class B shares convert to Class A shares at the time of the Combination. The shares are subject to sale and transfer restrictions. Filer terminated service as a director prior to the Combination, the shares were surrendered at no value by Filer in March 2023.	3/2021
4	GoBrands, Inc.	Philadelphia, Pennsylvania	Filer served as an advisor to GoBrands, Inc. and resigned in July 2022. Filer vested in 4,000 restricted stock units upon termination. The RSUs are subject to a liquidity event deadline that expires on May 10, 2028. Filer retains the RSUs as of December 31, 2023.	5/2021

PART	#	ENDNOTE
2.	1	Filer resigned from the General Motors ("GM") board in July 2022. A final cash payment was paid to Filer by GM in February 2023 based on the number of DSUs and dividends in the account. Filer does not have any remaining compensation due from GM as of December 31, 2023.
2.	2	Filer resigned from the board of directors of the Games & Esports Experience Acquisition Corp (the "Company") in July 2022. Filer vested in and received through MCW Gaming LLC 40,000 Class B shares of the Company, a special purpose acquisition company. During 2023, the Company shares merged into and became Siprocal, Inc., a mobile videogaming platform in North and South America. Filer is 1% owner in MCW Gaming LLC and still holds the shares at December 31, 2023.

PART	#	ENDNOTE
2.	3	Filer resigned as an advisor to GoBrands, Inc. in July 2022. GoBrands vested Filer in 4,000 restricted stock units in July 2022. The restricted stock units expire on the first to occur of the following: May 10, 2028 or the liquidity event deadline. Filer retains the shares as of December 31, 2023.
5.	9	UpToDate, Inc. is an online compendium of medical information. Filer's spouse is on retainer to provide current medical information to contribute to UpToDate™ online platform. He receives yearly income for his work as an author and editor, but does not own any interest in UpToDate.
6.	1	Filer has a reportable interest in Family Irrevocable Trust #1 as a beneficiary of the trust. Filer reports the income and assets of Family Irrevocable Trust #1.
6.	1.2	The value and income amounts reported for Palmyra Peak LP reflect the total aggregate amounts imputed to Filer (including her Spouse), which is 100% of Palmyra Peak LP. Family Irrevocable Trust #1 and Family Irrevocable Trust #2 each own a 49.75% interest in Palmyra Peak LP. Part 2 discloses the following:

- Sources of earned and other non-investment income of the filer totaling more than $200 during the reporting period (e.g., salary, fees, partnership share, honoraria, scholarships, and prizes)
- Assets related to the filer's business, employment, or other income-generating activities (1) that ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) from which more than $200 in income was received during the reporting period (e.g., equity in business or partnership, stock options, retirement plans/accounts and their underlying holdings as appropriate, deferred compensation, and intellectual property, such as book deals and patents)

This section does not include assets or income from United States Government employment or assets that were acquired separately from the filer's business, employment, or other income-generating activities (e.g., assets purchased through a brokerage account). Note: The type of income is not required if the amount of income is $0 - $200 or if the asset qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF).

3. Filer's Employment Agreements and Arrangements

Part 3 discloses agreements or arrangements that the filer had during the reporting period with an employer or former employer (except the United States Government), such as the following:

- Future employment
- Leave of absence
- Continuing payments from an employer, including severance and payments not yet received for previous work (excluding ordinary salary from a current employer)
- Continuing participation in an employee welfare, retirement, or other benefit plan, such as pensions or a deferred compensation plan
- Retention or disposition of employer-awarded equity, sharing in profits or carried interests (e.g., vested and unvested stock options, restricted stock, future share of a company's profits, etc.)

4. Filer's Sources of Compensation Exceeding $5,000 in a Year

Part 4 discloses sources (except the United States Government) that paid more than $5,000 in a calendar year for the filer's services during any year of the reporting period.

The filer discloses payments both from employers and from any clients to whom the filer personally provided services. The filer discloses a source even if the source made its payment to the filer's employer and not to the filer. The filer does not disclose a client's payment to the filer's employer if the filer did not provide the services for which the client is paying.

5. Spouse's Employment Assets & Income and Retirement Accounts

Part 5 discloses the following:

- Sources of earned income (excluding honoraria) for the filer's spouse totaling more than $1,000 during the reporting period (e.g., salary, consulting fees, and partnership share)
- Sources of honoraria for the filer's spouse greater than $200 during the reporting period
- Assets related to the filer's spouse's employment, business activities, other income-generating activities (1) that ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) from which more than $200 in income was received during the reporting period (e.g., equity in business or partnership, stock options, retirement plans/accounts and their underlying holdings as appropriate, deferred compensation, and intellectual property, such as book deals and patents)

This section does not include assets or income from United States Government employment or assets that were acquired separately from the filer's spouse's business, employment, or other income-generating activities (e.g., assets purchased through a brokerage account). Note: The type of income is not required if the amount of income is $0 - $200 or if the asset qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF). Amounts of income are not required for a spouse's earned income (excluding honoraria).

6. Other Assets and Income

Part 6 discloses each asset, not already reported, (1) that ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) from which more than $200 in investment income was received during the reporting period. For purposes of the value and income thresholds, the filer aggregates the filer's interests with those of the filer's spouse and dependent children.

This section does not include the following types of assets: (1) a personal residence (unless it was rented out during the reporting period); (2) income or retirement benefits associated with United States Government employment (e.g., Thrift Savings Plan); and (3) cash accounts (e.g., checking, savings, money market accounts) at a single financial institution with a value of $5,000 or less (unless more than $200 in income was received). Additional exceptions apply. Note: The type of income is not required if the amount of income is $0 - $200 or if the asset qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF).

7. Transactions

Part 7 discloses purchases, sales, or exchanges of real property or securities in excess of $1,000 made on behalf of the filer, the filer's spouse or dependent child during the reporting period.

This section does not include transactions that concern the following: (1) a personal residence, unless rented out; (2) cash accounts (e.g., checking, savings, CDs, money market accounts) and money market mutual funds; (3) Treasury bills, bonds, and notes; and (4) holdings within a federal Thrift Savings Plan account. Additional exceptions apply.

8. Liabilities

Part 8 discloses liabilities over $10,000 that the filer, the filer's spouse or dependent child owed at any time during the reporting period.

This section does not include the following types of liabilities: (1) mortgages on a personal residence, unless rented out (limitations apply for PAS filers); (2) loans secured by a personal motor vehicle, household furniture, or appliances, unless the loan exceeds the item's purchase price; and (3) revolving charge accounts, such as credit card balances, if the outstanding liability did not exceed $10,000 at the end of the reporting period. Additional exceptions apply.

9. Gifts and Travel Reimbursements

This section discloses:

- Gifts totaling more than $480 that the filer, the filer's spouse, and dependent children received from any one source during the reporting period.
- Travel reimbursements totaling more than $480 that the filer, the filer's spouse, and dependent children received from any one source during the reporting period.

For purposes of this section, the filer need not aggregate any gift or travel reimbursement with a value of $192 or less. Regardless of the value, this section does not include the following items: (1) anything received from relatives; (2) anything received from the United States Government or from the District of Columbia, state, or local governments; (3) bequests and other forms of inheritance; (4) gifts and travel reimbursements given to the filer's agency in connection with the filer's official travel; (5) gifts of hospitality (food, lodging, entertainment) at the donor's residence or personal premises; and (6) anything received by the filer's spouse or dependent children totally independent of their relationship to the filer. Additional exceptions apply.

Privacy Act Statement

Title I of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended (the Act), 5 U.S.C. § 13101 et seq., as amended by the Representative Louise McIntosh Slaughter Stop Trading on Congressional Knowledge Act of 2012 (Pub. L. 112-105) (STOCK Act), and 5 C.F.R. Part 2634 of the U. S. Office of Government Ethics regulations require the reporting of this information. Failure to provide the requested information may result in separation, disciplinary action, or civil action. The primary use of the information on this report is for review by Government officials to determine compliance with applicable Federal laws and regulations. This report may also be disclosed upon request to any requesting person in accordance with sections 105 and 402(b)(1) of the Act or as otherwise authorized by law. You may inspect applications for public access of your own form upon request. Additional disclosures of the information on this report may be made: (1) to any requesting person, subject to the limitation contained in section 208(d)(1) of title 18, any determination granting an exemption pursuant to sections 208(b)(1) and 208(b)(3) of title 18; (2) to a Federal, State, or local law enforcement agency if the disclosing agency becomes aware of violations or potential violations of law or regulation; (3) to a source when necessary to obtain information relevant to a conflict of interest investigation or determination; (4) to the National Archives and Records Administration or the General Services Administration in records management inspections; (5) to the Office of Management and Budget during legislative coordination on private relief legislation; (6) when the disclosing agency determines that the records are arguably relevant to a proceeding before a court, grand jury, or administrative or adjudicative body, or in a proceeding before an administrative or adjudicative body when the adjudicator determines the records to be relevant to the proceeding; (7) to reviewing officials in a new office, department or agency when an employee transfers or is detailed from one covered position to another, a public financial disclosure report and any accompanying documents, including statements notifying an employee's supervising ethics office of the commencement of negotiations for future employment or compensation or of an agreement for future employment or compensation; (8) to a Member of Congress or a congressional office in response to an inquiry made on behalf of and at the request of an individual who is the subject of the record; (9) to contractors and other non-Government employees working on a contract, service or assignment for the Federal Government when necessary to accomplish a function related to this system of records; (10) on the OGE Website and to any person, department or agency, any written ethics agreement, including certifications of ethics agreement compliance, filed with OGE by an individual nominated by the President to a position requiring Senate confirmation; (11) on the OGE Website and to any person, department or agency, any certificate of divestiture issued by OGE; (12) on the OGE Website and to any person, department or agency, any waiver of the restrictions contained in Executive Order 13989 or any superseding executive order; (13) to appropriate agencies, entities and persons when there has been a suspected or confirmed breach of the system of records, the agency maintaining the records has determined that there is a risk of harm to individuals, the agency, the Federal Government, or national security, and the disclosure is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the agency's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm; and (14) to another Federal agency or Federal entity, when the agency maintaining the record determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or in preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity, the Federal Government, or national security.
