David J. Apol, Acting Director
and General Counsel
Office of Government Ethics
Suite 500
1201 New York Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20005-3919

Dear Mr. Apol:

In accordance with the provisions of Title I of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 as amended, I am forwarding the financial disclosure report of Mr. Gadyaces S. Serralta. President Trump has nominated Mr. Serralta to serve as the United States Marshal for the Southern District of Florida. We have conducted a thorough review of the nominee's report and have counseled him on the government ethics rules.

As required by 18 U.S.C. § 208(a), Mr. Serralta will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter in which he knows that he has a financial interest directly and predictably affected by the matter, or in which he knows that a person whose interests are imputed to him has a financial interest directly and predictably affected by the matter, unless he first obtains a written waiver, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(1), or qualifies for a regulatory exemption, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(2). He understands that the interests of the following persons are imputed to him: his spouse; minor children; any general partner of a partnership in which he is a limited or general partner; any organization in which he serves as officer, director, trustee, general partner or employee; and any person or organization with which he is negotiating or has an arrangement concerning prospective employment.

Upon confirmation, Mr. Serralta will resign from his position with the Miami-Dade Police Department. For a period of one year after his resignation, Mr. Serralta will have a "covered relationship" with the Miami-Dade Police Department pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502. He has been advised that his participation in particular matters involving specific parties in which the Miami-Dade Police Department is a party or represents a party will be authorized pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d).

Upon confirmation, Mr. Serralta will also resign from his positions with the following private entities: High Ridge Consultants, LCS Ventures, and Great Caribbean Family. With regard to High Ridge Consultants, LCS Ventures, and Great Caribbean Family, for a period of one year after his resignations, he will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter involving specific parties in which any of these entities is a party or represents a party, unless he is first authorized to participate, pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d).

Mr. Serralta's spouse is an owner and employee of Monica Cantera-Serralta, PA, a real estate and property management firm, in a position for which she receives a salary and commissions tied to her performance. Mr. Serralta's spouse is also an owner and an employee of Pan American Insurance Group, LLC, an insurance firm, in a position for which she receives commissions tied to her performance. For as long as Mr. Serralta's spouse holds an ownership in and/or is employed by either of these two firms, he will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter that to his knowledge has a direct and predictable effect on the financial interests of either of these entities, unless he first obtain a written waiver, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(1).

Mr. Serralta's spouse is an owner of BDG Kendall, LLC, Lopen-Cantera Holdings, Cantelop Properties 7 LTD, Cantelop Properties 102, Pan American Realty Services, and GASHKOM LLC. For as long as Mr. Serralta's spouse holds an ownership interest in these entities, he will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter that to his knowledge has a direct and predictable effect on the financial interests of any of these entities, unless he first obtain a written waiver, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 208(b)(1).

If Mr. Serralta has a managed account or otherwise uses the services of an investment professional during his appointment, he will ensure that the account manager or investment professional obtains his prior approval on a case-by-case basis for the purchase of any assets other than cash, cash equivalents, investment funds that qualify for the exemption at 5 C.F.R. § 2640.201(a), or obligations of the United States.

Mr. Serralta will meet live with United States Marshals Service ethics officials in connection with his appointment to the position of United States Marshal for the Southern District of Florida during the timeframe established by 5 C.F.R. § 2638.305(b) in order to complete the initial ethics briefing required under 5 C.F.R. § 2638.305. Within 90 days of his confirmation, he will document his compliance with this ethics agreement by notifying United States Marshals Service ethics officials in writing when he has completed the steps described in this ethics agreement.

Mr. Serralta understands that as an appointee he will be required to sign the Ethics Pledge (Exec. Order No. 13770) and that he will be bound by the requirements and restrictions therein in addition to the commitments he has made in this ethics agreement.

Mr. Serralta has been advised that this ethics agreement will be posted publicly, consistent with 5 U.S.C. § 552, on the website of the U.S. Office of Government Ethics with ethics agreements of other Presidential nominees who file public financial disclosure reports.

Based on the above agreements and counseling, I am satisfied that the enclosed report presents no conflicts of interest under applicable laws and regulations and that you may so certify to the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Sincerely,

Lee J. Lofthus
Assistant Attorney General
for Administration and Designated Agency Ethics Official

NOMINEE STATEMENT

I have read the attached Ethics Agreement signed by Lee J. Loftus, Assistant Attorney General for Administration and Designated Agency Ethics Official on April 30, 2018, and I agree to comply with the conflict of interest statute and regulations, and to follow the procedures set forth in the agreement. In addition, I understand that as an appointee I will be required to sign the Ethics Pledge (Exec. Order No. 13770) and that I will be bound by the requirements and restrictions therein in addition to the commitments I have made in this ethics agreement.

Date: April 30, 2018
